

STAT

ARTICLE APPEARED
ON PAGE 1A-12WASHINGTON STAR (GREEN LINE)
13 DECEMBER 1978Kwang L. Lee

Kwang Lien Lee, 69, an insurance underwriter and real estate broker, died Dec. 7 of leukemia in Sibley Memorial Hospital. He lived on Boiling Brook Parkway in Rockville.

Lee was a past president of the Chinese Benevolent Association of the District, a national president of Lee Family Association, the organizer of seven Lee Federal Credit Unions in different parts of the country and was chairman of the board of OCC, Inc., a real estate company.

Born in Boston, Lee grew up in China and attended universities in Canton and Shanghai. He later was a law professor.

In 1939, he returned to the United States and moved to the District.

During World War II, Lee worked for the Office of Strategic Services, a forerunner to the CIA. After the war, he became a self-employed insurance underwriter and real estate agent.

He leaves his wife, Wen Yuen; a son, Tunney, of Newton, Mass.; three daughters in China, Moo Jane, Guiyee and Hsiao Ha; and 10 grandchildren.

Services will be held at noon on Friday in Calvary Baptist Church, 8th and H streets NW, with burial in George Washington Cemetery.